| Course Title | Final Project 2 | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Course Code | CSC405 | | | | |
| Course Type | Compulsory | | | | |
| Level | BSc/1st Cycle | | | | |
| Year / Semester | 4th/8th | | | | |
| Teacher's Name | Dimitrios Gkritzapis | | | | |
| ECTS | 10 | Lectures / week | 3 hours | Laboratories / week | 2 hours |
| Course Purpose and Objectives | The purpose of the dissertation is the practice of the students in the implementation of what they learned during their studies in solving a specific, practical, realistic problem, such as those they will be called upon to solve during their professional career. | | | | |
| Learning Outcomes | Upon completion of the course, the student should be able to deliver the complete work of his graduate work. | | | | |
| Prerequisites | CSC401 | Required | | - | |
| Course Content | A subject in the field of Computer Science is selected by the student, which is approved by the responsible professor. The student, after a survey, will present a written report on the subject. The work will be supervised by a member of the IT department.Recent developments and contemporary issues related to the subject matter of the course. | | | | |
| Teaching Methodology | Lectures 42 hoursLabs 30 hours | | | | |
| Bibliography | - | | | | |
| Assessment | Final Exam 60%Mid-Term/Lab Exams 20%Assignments 20% | | | | |
| Language | English | | | | |